

Born in 1949, Jean Jacques Pérennès is a dominican friar from France. After his degrees in philosophy, theology and a PhD in economics, he has spent most of his dominican life in Muslim countries (Algeria, Egypt, Irak, Palestine). He has published several books on the interreligious dialogue, has served 8 years as Socius to the Master of the Order for the apostolic life, 9 years at the Dominican institute for oriental studies in Cairo and is at the moment the director of the Ecole biblique et archéologique française of Jerusalem.